Summary of reasons for decision:

The file is a CGI image depicting adults involving children in sexual activity. It is deemed to be objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. The image is clearly intended to for the arousal of those with a sexual interest in children. The availability of such material encourages the creation or reinforcement of this sexual interest. This image could also be used to groom children for sexual exploitation. The objectionable classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention to limit the availability of publications that promote and support the exploitation of children for sexual purposes and also reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from such exploitation.
